LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

(Mr. ARMEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, I take this time to speak for one moment for the purpose of advising Members about their travel schedules.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to just take a minute to advise Members that we, of course, have passed the continuing resolution through our body. It is now under consideration in the other body. We recognize the possibility of extended consideration of the continuing resolution in the other body, and, in light of that, we cannot make any hard and fast declarations about our potential departure time today. We still remain somewhat optimistic, but I thought it was only fair to alert the Members.

Of course, we must await the other body's final consideration for our final action at this point. We will try to stay in touch with them about what is going on, and I will try to keep the body informed. I remain hopeful that perhaps they can expedite their consideration and we can move on with our day's schedule.

In the meantime, as we contemplate that, we will be considering the possibility of other legislation to be brought before the body today. But we will make every effort we can, in light of the considerations we must give the other body, to complete our work as early as we can today, so that Members can get home for their district work period.

Mr. FAZIO of California. Mr. Speaker will the gentleman yield?

Mr. ARMEY. I yield to the gentleman from California.

Mr. FAZIO of California. Mr. Speaker, I understand there is a consultative meeting on Bosina at the White House today with a number of Members at 12:30. Is it possible we could accommodate those Members who need to be at that very important meeting without having votes interrupting?

Mr. ARMEY. I appreciate the gentleman's concern. I, too, will be in that meeting. We are looking at all options on the schedule. We will do our best to accommodate all Members, perhaps even by delaying votes or whatever, and we will try to accommodate them.

Mr. FAZIO of California. I know a number of Members want to have the vote, if possible, so they could go to that meeting without having to leave. Is it possible that votes could be held before that time?

Mr. ARMEY. As the gentleman knows, the other body works at its own pace, and we will, of course, as we always do, wait their result.

Mr. FAZIO of California. Is there any change in the anticipated order of schedule today? Everything remains as is?

Mr. ARMEY. Not at this time. We intend to proceed as we scheduled for today.

Mr. LIVINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. ARMEY. I yield to the gentleman from Louisiana.

Mr. LIVINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, I am aware of that meeting. I am also aware that we have the defense conference report for the 1996 appropriations scheduled on the floor in the next few minutes, and that that vote may come up at some point this afternoon. I would suggest to those who are conducting the meeting, that it might be wise to either hold it on Capitol Hill or reschedule it.

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, we did receive extremely late notice from the White House, and we are trying to accommodate everyone concerned with respect to the White House request. We will make a determination and proceed with due consideration of all our Members in light of the two considerations two matters we have at the White House and the other body.
